

As a listener of K-love radio I am concerned about your decision to displace this station with a LPFM broadcaster. Having positive and encouraging music for my family is important. In a world that is sometimes negative it is a great experince to listen to KLOVE. My community would suffer with this choose. The public needs KLOVE.